Democratic State Convention.

Great Enthusiasm---Harmonious Action.

Nomination of Hon. Hiester Clymer.

Platform. Speeches, &c.

HARRISBURG, March 5, 1866.

Pursuant to call, the delegates to the Democratic State Convention to nominate a Governor, met in the Hall of the House of Representatives. Precisely at three o'clock, Hon. William A. Wallace, Chairman of the State Central Committee, called the Convention to order, and said he was ready to receive nominations for temporary Chairman of the Convention.

Bernard Reilly, seconded by William H. Miller, nominated Hon. John Latta, of Westmoreland county, as temporary President, who was chosen by acclamation.

SPEECH OF MR. LATTA.

Mr. Latta said: Gentlemen of the Convention: I would be destitute of all feeling if I were not touched by this evidence of your kind consideration in choosing me to preside over your deliberations. For all this I thank you. I congratulate you, gentlemen, on the brightness of the signs of the times, on the future prosperity which is in store for you—for all the friends of this country, and for the white race in particular, [cheers,] on having at the head of your national government a patriot and a lover of his country [applause]—a man who is determined to do his duty.—[Cheers.] It is not for me to mark out the line of policy for this Convention to pursue; but I can read your feelings too well not to know that the man you nominate in this Convention will be the choice of the white men of Pennsylvania [applause]; that the platform you will adopt will be the embodiment of the principles which inspire you, and which the patriotic men of Pennsylvania will come up, on the second Tuesday of October next, and support with a unanimity and enthusiasm unprecedented. Let the nominee be who he may; let him belong to whatever party he may, only let him stand upon the broad principles of the Constitution and the Union—not a portion of the Union, but the entire Union—and every man in favor of the flag of his country, every man with patriotic sentiments in his bosom, will come up and say that that man and those principles must be maintained; and in that you, and every white man in Pennsylvania, should agree. [Cheers.] I again thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me.

ORGANIZATION.

F. M. Hutchinson, of Pittsburg; G. B. Culp, of Luzerne; Charles W. Carrigan, of Philadelphia; P. G. Meek, of Centre; and S. P. Auchmuty, of Dauphin, were chosen temporary Secretaries.

Bernard Reilly, of Schuylkill, moved that a committee of one from each senatorial district be appointed by the various delegations, on permanent organization. Agreed to.

The various delegations selected the following gentlemen on the committee on permanent officers:

| XXVII | " | John Kennerdell. |
| XXVIII | " | George R. Snowden. |
| XXIX | " | Lyman Hall. |

The committee then retired. During their absence the interval was agreeably occupied with spirited speeches from leading gentlemen.

SPEECHES DURING RECESS.

Loud calls were made for Senator Wallace. He finally rose and said: I see in your faces an indication of good times coming. There was hope for the country, and when there was hope for the country there was hope for the Democratic party. The Constitution was about to be vindicated. Success was about to crown the principles of the Democracy. He invoked a spirit of harmony and of concord, by everything they hold dear. He invoked the Convention and the people to form such a solid and permanent front as must carry the party standard through the terrific canvass that was about to open.

Calls were made for Mr. Carrigan, of Philadelphia, who said: That if the great hero of the buckshot war was in the Convention to-day he would feel the throes of a political earthquake.—He never said anything truer than when he said in Congress, that he trembled as if an earthquake were surrounding him. [Laughter.] It is coming for such men as Sumner and Stevens, who the President says, are traitors! [Cheers.] [A voice: What about Forney?] Gentlemen, I have nothing to say about John W. Forney, and in that I follow an illustrious example. [Applause.] He referred, with eloquence, to our revolutionary fathers, who, he said, had fought for constitutional liberty and a Union undivided, and when Gen. George B. McClellan fought at the head of our armies it was in behalf of constitutional liberty. [Immense cheering.] Phil. Sheridan, Gen. Grant, and all the heroes of the war had fought for constitutional liberty and a Union for white men. [Cheers.] He asserted that abolitionism would never lift its head again in Pennsylvania after the October election.

Colonel J. K. Kerr, of Pittsburg, addressed the Convention at length, praising the course of Andrew Johnson.—The Democracy must fight the party that would subvert the Constitution, deny the States an existence and form such a central despotism as would rule in defiance of the majority. God had raised up a man who is destined to lead the people, and make the Rump Congress hold their heads in shame from an outraged people.

Hon. H. P. Ross, of Doylestown, said that the party had existed throughout a period unprecedented in its tyrannies and outrages upon the rights of the people, and now "truth crushed to earth" has at last been proclaimed by the President of the United States. [Cheers.] We are marching forward to Union with one heart and united hands.

Geo. W. Brewer, of Franklin, said the record of the Democratic party was a noble one; the long and equally grand history of the country was the history of the Democratic party. That party had fought the open enemies of the South and the covert enemies of the North. The radicals in Congress were trampling upon the Constitution and must be rebuked. But a few months ago the opposition said the Administration was the Government, and as such must be obeyed; but now there are none of them so poor as to do Andrew Johnson reverence. We will encircle him with a wall of strong arms and stout hearts to sustain him. [Cheers.] The Union and the Constitution must and shall be preserved. Andrew Johnson, in the post of honor and of danger, stands there the bold and able champion in his defence of the Constitution. He offered three cheers for the three J's—Jefferson, Jackson and Johnson. He proposed to write this epitaph over his opponents' graves: "All's well that ends well!" [Cheers.]

Gen. William H. Miller, being loudly called for, said he was glad it had been left for the Republican party to demonstrate that for a man to be a patriot he must have been educated in that party. Andrew Johnson had been true to the Constitution and the party in which he was educated. He stood by the old land-marks. He believed that by a resolution of this Convention endorsing Andrew Johnson the party would be true to its antecedents.

The committee on permanent organization now returned to the chamber, when their chairman, Mr. Reilly, of Schuylkill, made the following report of officers. It was unanimously adopted:

PERMANENT OFFICERS.

President—Hon. William Hopkins, of Washington.

Vice Presidents—1, Geo. W. Nebinger; 2, Stephen D. Anderson; 3, Chas. R. Wolf; 4, Tatlow Jackson; 5, J. H. Brinton; 6, Paul Applebaugh; 7, Herman Rupp; 8, D. L. Batdorf; 9, Thos. H. Walker; 10, John S. Fisher; 11, Stephen Wilber; 12, A. B. Dunning; 13, F. W. Knox; 14, Dr. H. H. Martin; 15, Geo. D. Jackson; 16, Wm. H. Miller; 17, Dr. John Martin; 18, Thomas Kerr; 19, G. W. Brewer; 20, John Palmer; 21, D. B. Milliken; 22, John S. Miller; 23, James B. Sansom; 24, E. B. Eldred; 25, John George; 26, James Salisbury; 27, Wm. M. Stewart; 28, E. B. Dougherty; 29, Samuel Marshall; 30, M. C. Trout; 31, Wm. L. Scott.

Secretaries—F. M. Hutchinson, E. R. Helmbold, Jacob Zeigler, Geo. B. Culp, Geo. W. Ryan, R. M. Speer, A. H. Dill.

Mr. Hopkins, on taking the chair, said:

Gentlemen of the Convention:—Perhaps the best assurance I could give you of my high appreciation of the distinguished honor your partiality has so unexpectedly conferred upon me, would be to announce my readiness to proceed at once to the discharge of the duty for which we have met.

But, in view of the peculiar circumstances by which we are surrounded, I trust that it will not be deemed obtrusive if I venture a remark, or two in regard to the present posture of public affairs.

This is the first Democratic State Convention that has assembled in this Commonwealth since the termination of the terrible fratricidal war which has waged with such fury for the past four years.

And first of all, may I not ask that the Convention shall reverently unite in humble and earnest gratitude to God for His merciful interposition in staying the further effusion of blood, and for inclining the hearts of our "erring brethren" to lay down their arms and return to their allegiance to the Federal Union? It is not my province, gentlemen, either to suggest a platform of principles, or to indicate who should be our standard-bearer. These are matters which belong to the Convention as a whole, rather than to any individual member, and the work will, I doubt not, be well performed. In regard to the latter, you will allow me to say that an improper selection can hardly be made out of the excellent material presented for your consideration. Whoever the successful gentleman may be, let us, each and all, claim him as our candidate. With harmonious action on our part, and a zealous support of the nominee on the part of those whose representatives we are, the result cannot be doubtful.

The signs of the times indicate with unerring certainty that the day of our deliverance is at hand. The Democracy have never been more firmly united than now, and I verily believe that there are thousands of conservative Republicans who have had such a surfeit of "negro equality" and "negro suffrage," a policy to which their party is so fully committed, that they will be glad of the opportunity to co-operate with us. Let us assure them that the paramount consideration with us, in the present struggle, is to maintain the supremacy of the Constitution of the United States inviolate, and the ascendancy of the white race against the bold attempts of the Republican party to degrade them to a level with the blacks. Let us assure them that to accomplish those desirable ends we are willing, for the time being, at least, to ignore all other issues.

The noble stand taken by President Johnson in favor of a speedy restoration of the States whose people were lately in rebellion, to their former relations to the Federal Union, and the enlightened and magnanimous policy he has adopted for the accomplishment of this truly patriotic purpose, deserves the highest commendation. His action in this respect has demonstrated that he is a statesman of enlarged views, one whose deeds are worthy to be handed down to future generations with those of the immortal Washington, Jefferson, Jackson, Clay, and their compatriots.

His veto, too, of that iniquitous measure, the "Freedmen's Bureau Bill," should challenge the admiration of all who wish to see law and order restored, and military despotism give place to civil government.

That message exhibits, in a remarkable degree, the rare quality of self-denial, in refusing the allurements of power and patronage so lavishly proffered the Executive by the bill in question, which is worthy of all praise. Should his hands not be held up by every man, without distinction of party, who desires to see the Union restored "with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired?"

But I must not trespass. I again thank you, gentlemen, for this renewed expression of generous confidence.

A motion to appoint a committee of one from each Senatorial district, on resolutions, was then adopted. The districts were then called and names suggested as follows:

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Hon. W. V. M'Grath, S. D. Anderson, L. C. Cassidy, H. M. Deckert, R. B. Longaker, Hon. Nimrod Strickland, Hon. P. Ross, W. H. Hutter, J. Hagenman, J. M. Wetherill, A. G. Brodhead, A. J. Gerritson, A. B. Dunning, F. W. Knox, Joseph C. Bucher, Wm. Elliott, Wm. K. Wilson, Dr. Henry Carpenter, S. H. Reynolds, J. H. Criswell, Geo. W. Brewer, Geo. A. Smith, R. M. Speer, P. Gray Meek, Joseph M. Thompson, T. R. Beale, J. B. Sweitzer, James K. Kerr, E. B. Dougherty, Wm. Newell, Geo. R. Snowden, B. F. Sloan.

A motion to refer all resolutions to committee, without debate, was adopted.

On motion, that when this Convention adjourns, it adjourn to meet at 7 o'clock this evening. Alopted.

The committee then retired, and the Convention adjourned to meet this evening at 7 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

The President called the Convention to order at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Latta inquired if the committee on resolutions was ready to report.

The Sergeant-at-arms was instructed to see the committee and ascertain how soon they would report. After some time had elapsed, he reported that the committee would be ready to report at 8 o'clock. They had agreed upon resolutions, but wanted to get their suppers before reporting.

Gen. Miller suggested that if any member of the committee was present, the report might as well be handed in.

A proposition for a recess until 8 o'clock was voted down.

Mr. Ziegler said we are bound in courtesy to wait until the committee was ready to report. [Applause.]

Mr. Ziegler was then called on for a speech. He said he would much rather hear others, than speak himself. He had remained quiet and silent in his seat and enjoyed the proceedings immensely. See all these Democrats, who have come out from over hills and vales, and then say the Democracy is dead—Great Lord? [Laughter.] Notwithstanding the Democracy was put in prison by provost marshals, lick-spittles and satraps, she still lives! There is one thing that should wed Andrew Johnson to the Democratic party, and that was economy. The Democratic party had always favored economy in the disposition of public funds. He said Andrew Johnson was economical, because he has said he would not waste his ammunition on—dead ducks. [Laughter.]

Hon. Myer Strouse, in obedience to loud calls, proceeded to address the Convention. He said the Democracy were here to-night representing the heart of the Commonwealth. Coming direct from the Capital of the Nation, he was able to report that the skies looked clearer there. That eminent man, the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, had taken decided ground in favor of the Constitution and the Union. He counseled harmony. Let the nominee be from the East or from the West; let him be from the North or the South; let him have railroad influence or not; he trusted every Democrat would put his shoulder to the wheel and elect the nominee of this Convention. [Applause.]

He had the honor of several private interviews with the President, in which Mr. Johnson had said that he was a Democrat in the House; he had been a Democrat in the Senate; and he was now a Democrat in the Executive chair. [Cheers.] This is a Democratic Government—free for white men, the negroes in their place. Whatever has "negro" in it, I tell you will be vetoed by the President. [Cheers.] This State was always Democratic. She was even Democratic when Governor Curtin was supposed to have been elected. Stand by your nominee to-night, and you will stand by the President and the people. [Applause.]

Mr. Lewis C. Cassidy alluding to the immense crowd in the hall, moved that the Sergeant-at-arms be directed to exclude every man from the Chamber who was not a delegate.

A gentleman remarked that it was not in accordance with Democratic principles to exclude the people; which was greeted with applause.

Mr. Ziegler said, if there were any Republicans here, he was glad to have them here; but he did not want them to take the front seats in the church. They should take seats near the door, so that when they go out they might not disturb the congregation. [Laughter.]

THE RESOLUTIONS.

Col. J. K. Kerr, of Allegheny, chairman of the committee on resolutions, reported as follows:

The Democracy of Pennsylvania in Convention met, recognizing a crisis in the affairs of the Republic, and esteeming the immediate restoration of the Union paramount to all other issues, do resolve:

1. That the States, whereof the people were lately in rebellion, are integral parts of the Union and are entitled to representation in Congress by men duly elected who bear true faith to the Constitution and laws, and in order to vindicate the maxim that taxation without representation is tyranny, such representatives should be forthwith admitted.

2. That the faith of the Republic is pledged to the payment of the National debt and Congress should pass all laws necessary for that purpose.

3. That we owe obedience to the Constitution of the United States (including the amendment prohibiting slavery,) and under its provisions will accord to those emancipated all their rights of person and property.

4. That each State has the exclusive right to regulate the qualifications of its own electors.

5. That the white race alone is entitled to the control of the Government of the Republic, and we are unwilling to grant to negroes the right to vote.

6. That the bold enunciation of the principles of the Constitution and the policy of restoration contained in the recent annual message and Freedmen's Bureau veto message of President Johnson entitle him to the confidence and support of all who respect the Constitution and love their country.

7. That the nation owes to the brave men of our armies and navy a debt of lasting gratitude for their heroic services in defence of the Constitution and the Union: and that while we cherish with a tender affection the memories of the fallen, we pledge to their widows and orphans the nation's care and protection.

8. That we urge upon Congress the duty of equalizing the bounties of our soldiers and sailors.

The resolutions, as they were read, were frequently greeted with applause. They unanimously adopted.

NOMINATIONS.

John S. M'Calmont moved that the Convention proceed to nominate gentlemen for the Governorship. Agreed to.

Col. M'Calmont nominated Gen. Geo. W. Cass, of Allegheny.

Mr. Montgomery, of Northumberland, nominated the Hon. Hiester Clymer, of Berks.

Mr. Hess nominated the Hon. John D. Stiles, of Lehigh.

Mr. Engleman, of Philadelphia, nominated Hon. D. M. Fox, of Philadelphia.

Mr. Strickland, of Chester, nominated Hon. Richard Vaux, of Philadelphia.

Mr. Merryman nominated Charles Dennison, of Luzerne.

Mr Sloan nominated Wm. A. Galbraith, of Erie.

Mr. Brodhead nominated Asa Packer, of Carbon.

Mr. Hastings nominated W. B. Jenks, of Jefferson.

The nominations then closed, and the Convention proceeded to the first ballot, as follows:

FIRST BALLOT.

|---|---|
| Clymer, | 53 |
| Cass, | 39 |
| Vaux, | 18 |
| Fox, | 8 |
| Packer, | 8 |
| Stiles, | 8 |
| Galbraith, | 3 |
| Dennison, | 2 |
| Jenks, | 2 |

The names of Messrs. Jenks and Dennison were then withdrawn.

There being no nomination the Convention then proceeded to a

SECOND BALLOT.

|---|---|
| Clymer, | 58 |
| Cass, | 35 |
| Vaux, | 18 |
| Fox, | 5 |
| Packer, | 9 |
| Stiles, | 8 |
| Galbraith, | 1 |

The name of Mr. Stiles was then withdrawn, and there being no choice the Convention proceeded to the

THIRD BALLOT.

|---|---|
| Clymer, | 66 |
| Fox, | 2 |
| Cass, | 40 |
| Vaux, | 16 |
| Galbraith, | 0 |
| Packer, | 9 |

Neither of the gentlemen having received a majority of the whole number of votes, the Convention proceeded to a

FOURTH BALLOT.

|---|---|
| Clymer, | 72 |
| Cass, | 34 |
| Vaux, | 13 |
| Packer, | 12 |

Hiester Clymer having received a majority of the whole number of votes cast was declared by the Chair to be the nominee of the Democracy of Pennsylvania for Governor.

Wild enthusiasm greeted this announcement, and a salute was fired from the Capitol Hill.

Mr. Thompson, of Indiana, moved that the nomination be made unanimous.

Mr. Kerr, of Pittsburg, seconded the motion, amid intense enthusiasm.

The motion was agreed to.

Gen. Wm. H. Miller, of Dauphin, moved that a committee of three be appointed to wait on Mr. Clymer, and such gentlemen as had been voted for Governor, and invite their attendance. Agreed to.

General Miller, of Dauphin Mr. Reilly, of Schuykill, and Mr. Kerr, of Pittsburg, were appointed to this duty.

Considerable discussion was then had in reference to the appointment of a State Central Committee for 1867. It was finally agreed, upon the motion of Mr. Speer, who moved that the present State Central Committee be continued until the next Convention. Agreed to.

Mr. Zeigler said that he believed the Committee on Resolutions had forgotten to endorse the action of such of our Congressmen who had sustained the President's restoration policy. He therefore offered the following:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Democracy of Pennsylvania be tendered to the Hon. Charles R. Buckalew and Hon. Edgar Cowan, for their patriotic support of the President's restoration policy; and that such thanks are due to all the Democratic members of Congress for their advocacy of the restoration policy of President Johnson.

Agreed to unanimously.

A motion of a similar tenor, returning thanks to all the members of Congress who supported President Johnson, was also adopted. At this juncture, the committee appointed to wait upon Mr. Clymer and the gentlemen who were before the Convention as candidates appeared in the hall, escorted by the City Cornet Band of this city. The party were enthusiastically received by the Convention, when Mr. Clymer, being conducted to the Speaker's chair, proceeded to address the assemblage as follows.

My Honored Friends: To you Mr. President, to you gentlemen of the Convention, and through you to the Democracy of Pennsylvania, I return my profound thanks for the honor you have done me. I feel that it comes laden with vast responsibilities; that to discharge them properly demands faith, hope, firm reliance upon the enduring principles of our creed and unyielding devotion to the rights and liberties of the people. He who would lead you to success should stand unawed by the presence of usurped power, uninfluenced by the blandishments of patronage. He should be the stern advocate of civil liberty; the bold defender of constitutional right and privilege; the uncompromising opponent of official and legislative corruption; the hearty supporter of all that tends to promote the welfare and happiness of our whole people, to develope the boundless resources of the State and advance her material and social prosperity. Then, too, he should stand the avowed and undoubted champion of the Union of these States, in its original purity, ready and willing, if need be, to sacrifice life itself in defending from the assaults of all enemies, be they Southern rebels or Northern disunionists, be they the bad, bold men who dared bare the sword, and proclaim their treason by deeds, or the dastardly miscreants who, under the garb of loyalty and the guise of friendship, would undermine and destroy it. These, I humbly conceive, should be among the elements in the composition of him who would lead you in the impending civil contest. I am painfully conscious of my own inability to approach this standard of personal and political excellence. A true desire to do right may in some measure compensate for the lack of ability to achieve it; if a sincere purpose to be guided in every act by the supreme law of the land and in all things to be governed by the views and teachings of the sainted heroes and patriots who framed it, may challenge the confidence and support of the good men of this Commonwealth, then to them and their verdict do I appeal with unshaken confidence, and through you, gentlemen of the Convention, who represent such goodly numbers of them, I make that appeal. Tell them I know no higher law than the Constitution of which Jefferson and Madison were the founders, Jackson the defender, Webster the expounder, and of which Johnson is the upholder. Tell them that I know no other standard of political action than equal and exact justice to all, special privileges to none; that I have no other political creed than that given to us by Washington and Jefferson; that I believe in the social superiority and will ever maintain the political supremacy of the white race; that I worship at no political altar whose foundations are not based upon the sacred Union of these immortal States. Tell them in advance, for me, of its peril, and conjure them, by the love of past memories, by the blood and carnage of our civil strife, by the dangers of the present and by all hopes of the future, to rally to the support of him who in the crisis of our country's fate, by a mysterious providence of God, has been entrusted with the helm of State. To them he has appealed in terms of patriotic devotion to his whole country. Above the wild storm of prejudice, fanaticism and treason now raging in the national Capitol, clear and loud are heard the words of the first Andrew re-echoed by the second, "The Federal Union, it must be preserved." They are the true watchwords of national safety. They embody the holiest aspirations of every true, patriot and afford a platform broad enough for men of all parties, no matter how wide their differences of opinion may heretofore have been. Let us dedicate ourselves to this great purpose in the unselfish and unshaken faith that its accomplishment will be its greatest reward. Let us go forth bearing aloft the banner of our country, emblazoned with the words 'The Constitution, the Federal Union.' Let us appeal to the whole people, from the Northern border to the Maryland line, from our inland sea to the Delaware, and if public virtue be not extinct, if devotion to principle still lives, if treason is still abhorred, then indeed in October next will victory, thrice blessed victory, crown our efforts, bringing with it a Constitution preserved, a Union restored, a land redeemed from the madness and folly which now threaten to destroy it.

That in some measure I may be of assistance in producing such results, I humbly pray. Upon you, gentlemen, and those whom you represent, I shall lean for support and guidance; and appealing to the God of our fathers to prosper us in all our efforts for the redemption and salvation of our country, I may not doubt that triumphant success will surely crown our labors. [Applause.]

The enthusiasm with which the closing remarks of the candidate of the Convention were received having somewhat subsided, the President of the Convention introduced Gen. Geo. W. Cass, of Allegheny.

SPEECH OF GEN. CASS.

Gen. Cass said that, not being a public speaker, it was with diffidence he appeared before this body, and this diffidence was much enhanced by the fact that he spoke in the presence of gentlemen much more competent to enlist the sympathies and engross the attention of the audience. But he had only appeared for the purpose of congratulating the Convention upon the nomination that had just been made, as also upon the fact that in arriving at that nomination the proceedings of this body had been attended with more unanimity and less acerbity of feeling than had ever characterized any similar nomination. He appealed to every gentleman present, who had attended assemblages of the Democratic party, for an evidence of the fact that the determination and enthusiasm of Democrats to carry forward their party principles was never so earnestly displayed. He took this as an augury of the result of the contest at the polls, and declared that that portion of the State which has presented his name for the chief office in the gift of the people of Pennsylvania, would roll up one of the largest majorities she ever gave for a nominee of the Democracy.

The speaker concluded by returning his thanks for the support which had been so zealously given him, and reiterating his endorsement of the nominee.

SPEECH OF HON. RICHARD VAUX.

The President then introduced Hon. Richard Vaux, of Philadelphia, who said: Gentlemen of the Democratic Convention, your labors as representative men are ended; the duty assigned you by your constituents has been fulfilled; the nomination you have made for the support of the Democratic party at the next election for Governor of this Commonwealth is before the State—Hiester Clymer, of Berks—a man of pure character and high standing, a Democrat and a successful nominee. [Applause.]

Gentlemen, the principles that Thomas Jefferson enunciated in his Inaugural Address were made the foundation upon which the Democracy of this country should build itself up. They were just and true on the day they were announced, and they are to-night as just and true and as applicable to our affairs as they ever were or will be throughout the country's history. This Democratic party, dating its existence in our State and in this country, from the days of its founder to this day, has ever been a party of principles and not of men. Those principles that were thus made the foundation stone of representative, constitutional liberty, are to-day the foundation upon which representative, constitutional liberty rests. They have been subjected to all kinds of tests, and there is to-day no one principle missing among all those that constituted the foundation upon which the organization of the Democratic party rested.—These are eternal principles. The Democratic party never has been disrupted and never can be broken to pieces.

The speaker said further, that men might go out of that party, and men who had sought nominations time and again had gone out of it, but the party still lived; and they would die and the party would not even weep over their graves. The principles of the platform just framed were but the re-echo of those of Adams and Jefferson.

In the course of some further remarks, which were much applauded, the speaker answered the old and hackneyed assertion that the Democratic party had been buried, by a comparison of that organization with Lazarus, who, though buried, rose again, a power to convert the beliefs and enchain the attention, judgment and the faith of men. He congratulated the Democracy of the State upon the action of their Convention in nominating one whose name added lustre to the position which he had been called to assume. Referring to the President, he said that the people of Pennsylvania would rally to the support of Andrew Johnson as they did to sustain Andrew Jackson; the Democracy would rally them for this second great veto President as they had for the first. It was not the man, however, that made the Democrat; it was the principles that a man professed and believed, and had the courage, manhood and patriotism to put into operation.

The mode by which it was now proposed to defeat and crush the Democracy was by means of a new panacea, a new nostrum, tried once in Pennsylvania, but not found to answer. The Speaker of the Hopkin's House was here the Speaker of the Convention.—Why did it fail then? Was it because it was William Hopkins, of Washington, then, and William Hopkins, of Washington, now? It was because it was the Democrat, then, and the Democrat, now, who made that experiment utterly futile.

The speaker concluded amid great applause.

Hon. D. M. Fox, of Philadelphia, was next introduced.

SPEECH OF MR. FOX.

In illustration of the immutable principles so eloquently eliminated by my fellow townsman and personal friend, the Hon. Richard Vaux, I have to say that the experience of the Democracy of the great metropolis of the Commonwealth has been of a most trying character, in which in the maintenance of the rights of conscience and honest opinion, not only for ourselves, but for all others, even those who differ with us, we have been visited by the most malignant persecution, in the political, the social and the business life, and I am sorry to say, in many cases, not even the portals of the church, has been exempt from this visitation. I am free to say that was it not for an invincible faith in the perpetuity of those principles, we would have been obliged to abstain perhaps from maintaining even organization; and I now rejoice that this present Convention has happily reiterated those ever living doctrines, and given us one who, from an unsullied character and invincible patriotism, as well as unquestioned capacities, gives us assurance of a standard bearer who will faithfully maintain them, and of whom we may justly be proud; and we can each return to our homes with the proud consciousness that all have well and faithfully done their duty; and I promise, on behalf of the Democracy of the city, an unbroken column, and a result in October which will make a most gratifying response to this nomination. I thank you most heartily for your kind attention. [Applause.]

Mr. Fox was followed by the Hon. John D. Stiles, who briefly urged the maintenance of the great principles of the Democratic party.

The Chairman then declared the Convention adjourned sine die.

Great credit is due the Sergeant-at-Arms, Samuel Carson, and his asistants, F. E. Degan, Bernard Campbell, R. M. Contout, Michael Sullivan and Jacob Apple, for the good order they preserved, notwithstanding the immense crowd that was in attendance.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Hon. HIESTER CLYMER,

OF BERKS COUNTY.

THE TWO CONVENTIONS.

The Democratic State Convention which was held on the 5th inst., came off very harmoniously, though largely attended from every portion of the State. Its proceedings were conducted in decency and order; its presiding officer behaved like a gentleman; its members treated each other courteously and respectfully; and its nominee spoke the speech of an orator and a statesman. Per contra, the Disunion Convention (we call it Disunion, because it refused to endorse the President, who desires the restoration of the Union, whilst it praised Congress which is keeping the Southern States out of the Union) which assembled on the 7th inst., was a most disorderly and discordant gathering. Its proceedings were marked with a spirit of contention and acrimony, as between the friends of the different candidates, as well as between the upholders and the opposers of the President's policy; its presiding officer acted in the worst possible taste in delivering a harangue in favor of his candidate for the nomination; its members accused each other of attempts to "gag," and of a violation of pledges, and of fraud and trickery; and its nominee stammered out some senseless platitudes, creditable neither to his political honesty, nor his claims to statesmanship. All we ask, is, that the people will read the proceedings of both conventions and judge concerning them without prejudice.

OUR "GOVERNOR."

O mewn jeour! "Republicans," as well as Republics, are ungrateful. How rudely have our fondest hopes been blasted! How sadly have our brightest anticipations been disappointed! Our readers well remember how confident we all were that we would, before long, have a Governor in Bedford. The Union League had telegraphed that all that was wanting to this end, was, that the news should go abroad that Bedford county had instructed its delegate to the Republican Convention, for the Honorable John Cessna. John himself assured us that all that was necessary to give us the honor of furnishing the State with the next Governor, was for the Republicans of the county to say that he should be the man. Besides he had received ever so many letters from nearly every county in the state, pledging him support, and as for Philadelphia, he informed us that the delegation from that city would be nearly unanimous for his nomination. Ah! how deceitful is human nature!

> This world is all a fleeting show
> For man's illusion given;
> The smile of friend, the steel of foe,
> To office-seekers serve to show,
> They'd better be in heaven!

Well! It's all over and in the language of the immortal Shakspeare, "there's no use in crying over spilled milk!" Our "Governor"—oh! how we blush to tell it—could muster but four votes in the Convention, to wit: the delegates from Somerset, Bedford, Fulton and Franklin. So he concluded that he would not let his name go before the Convention. It would have looked too bad, you know, to have been set down in the papers as receiving but four votes. The Union League ought to be a shamed of themselves, and as for the fellows who wrote those letters, they must be great scoundrels. It is really too bad. Why, even the Democratic Convention, three years ago, did better for our "Governor." Shame upon the base ingratitude of the men who know that the success of their party, (and, therefore, the salvation of their country,) was secured by the herculean efforts of the favorite son of Bedford. Pshaw! our heart is too full for utterance.

A CARD.

To the Editor of the BEDFORD GAZETTE:—Sir—Understanding that it has been generally reported that I permitted my name to be used as a candidate on the "Republican" ticket for the office of Justice of the Peace, I take this method of contradicting this report. I am a Democrat, have always been a Democrat and will support the Democratic ticket in the future.

Bedford tp., March 13, 1866.

DAVID POINTS.

THE above card confirms our own opinion of Mr. Points' fidelity to the Democracy. The Abolitionists have endeavored to injure him with his Democratic friends by placing him upon their ticket, and we are glad that Mr. Points has check-mated them in their move.

THE new nest of "Copperheads" just hatched under a defunct specimen of the genus duck, contains some very dark-skinned reptiles which hiss most furiously at 'the Government,' and which, on account of their peculiar incubation,

A "BROKEN DOWN DEMOCRAT."

The Disunion party are so scarce of material, that they were compelled to go to the ranks of the Democrats to get timber for a candidate for Governor.—The only trouble with their selection is, that they did not make it from the 'live Democracy, but culled out the rottenest of 'Dead Ducks,' a real, used-up, broken-down Democrat, who had no show for further promotion among his late political friends. Gen. Geary has been a Whig, a Democrat, a Know Nothing, a Democrat again, and now, for the sake of being a candidate for Governor, pretends to be a follower of Thaddeus Stevens. What he will be if he should be elected, we cannot prophesy; but we should not be astonished if he would play John Tyler, on a small scale. Such is his character, at any rate; "every thing by turns, and nothing long." We are pleased with his nomination, because, first, we think Clymer will beat him easily, and secondly, should he be elected we have great hopes that he will turn Democrat again about the time he writes his first message. We find the following letter in a recent issue of the Harrisburg Telegraph and re-publish it for the benefit of the curious:

GEN. GEARY'S LETTER

To S. Maguire, Esq., a leading Copperhead of Philadelphia, who wrote to him to know if he would accept a nomination from the Democratic party.

His fidelity to party is such that he can conscientiously accept a nomination for Governor from that party—His following the flag has not caused any entanglements inconsistent with fidelity to the Democratic party.

NEW CUMB'D, Cumb'd Co., Pa., August 14, 1865.

S—— M——, Esq.:

DEAR SIR:—Having been absent and just returned, I have the honor of finding your two letters, viz.: That of the 26th ult., covering your excellent letter of S—— J——, and that of the 3d inst., from Connellsville. The subject matter of both, and of the letter enclosed, has been carefully noted, and for the fraternal manner of its presentation I feel deeply indebted to you.

I feel assured you will bear me testimony, that I have never personally aspired to the honor of the Chief Magistracy of the State of Pennsylvania, for which position you have the kindness to indicate my name; and further, that when it has been a subject of conversation, that I have instinctively shrunk from the responsibilities it devolves upon its possessor. I have never been an aspirant for that honorable position. I never have, directly or indirectly, given my consent to any person or party to use my name for it. Therefore, I am perfectly free from any entangling alliances on the subject, and frankly say to you, that if the nomination and election were laid at my feet, I would still feel my inability to fill so high a position with that exalted capacity and sparkling intellect which is so eminently desired in the Executive chair. Impressed with the considerations to which I have just glanced, to which I may superadd, the WEALTH with which it seems necessary for the candidate to possess is not mine, I must, therefore, AT PRESENT, decline to be considered a candidate.

I have been a life-long Democrat, and am still a Democrat in the truest and most ample construction of the word and meaning of the term, without any prefix or affix whatever, maintaining all the immutable truths which underlie the superstructure of our form of government, in all their length and breadth, height and depth—not as mere abstractions, but as active, positive vitalities, invigorated by the greatest intensity of patriotism.

This letter has been written in haste for your own inspection only.

Again thanking you for your many kind expressions, I have the honor to be truly, &c.,

Fraternally yours,

J. W. GEARY.

P. S. Enclosed is Mr. Jenkins' letter. —Come and see me soon.

MILITARY HUMBUGS.

Whilst the thousands of brave men who bore the heat and burden of the late war, deserve our admiration and esteem, the "buncombe" Brigadiers and gassy Generals with which the army was so horribly afflicted, merit only the contempt, and excite, simply, the disgust, of all who estimate the soldier at his true worth. Far be it from us to include in this category, all of the higher officers of the army. We intend no such injustice. We refer solely to those flashy, tawdry, garish, big-plumed, specimens of Congressional Brevets, who smelt the battle afar off and whose exploits were performed with the bloodless point of the pen of the army correspondent for the sensation newspapers. In a recent number of the N. Y. Tribune, we find our notions upon this subject so well expressed, that we transfer a part of the article, as follows:

"Blessed be the man of sharp pen and bold thought, who will write us the history of Military Humbugs—who will tear off the buttons and lace from adventurers and show precisely what manner of men they are, and whence they came, and how it happens they are allowed to wear stars like those resting upon the shoulders of Sherman, Sheridan and Grant. We shall see in that day of judgment, that the honor of America has, too many times, been traded off and bestowed unworthily, and made a thing of merchandise and unworthy prompting."

Military Humbugs! Let them be exposed. Let the Tribune's coming "man of sharp pen and bold thought," come soon, and by all means, let him finish his work before the closing of the Gubernatorial campaign in Pennsylvania.

THOSE who opposed the measures of Ex-President Lincoln, were nick-named "Copperheads." Ought not those who now oppose President Johnson bear the same epithet?

GRAND DEMOCRATIC REVIVAL!

Thad. Stevens' Earthquakes Coming!!

Hurrah for the ground-swell! A general uprising of the people in behalf of Andrew Johnson and the Re-union Democracy, is going on over the country. For instance:

At the municipal election in Troy, N. Y., a few days ago, the Democratic candidate for Mayor was elected by upwards of 300 majority. Last fall the Republican ticket had several hundred majority in that city.

At the charter election in Ithaca, N. Y., on the 7th inst., the entire Democratic ticket was elected with an average gain of 122.

The Democrats of Utica, N. Y., have elected nearly their whole ticket, and made large gains.

The charter election at Cairo, Ill., on the 27th ult., resulted in the election of the Democratic ticket, by a majority averaging from 250 to 325, a gain of about 500.

Ellenville, N. Y., has elected the whole Democratic ticket, by 265 majority. Last year the "Republicans" had 200 majority.

Rhinebeck, N. Y., which last year gave 100 "Republican" majority, now elects the Democratic ticket by 45 majority.

Alexandria, Va., which has been under the heel of the Radicals for four years, gives 400 Democratic majority.

This is a glorious Democratic revival. No wonder Thad. Stevens imagines he hears the rumbling of an earthquake.

PRAISE FROM SIR HUBERT.

The excellent character of Mr. Clymer, the Democratic nominee for Governor, compels commendation from his bitterest political opponents. For instance the Philadelphia Inquirer says:

"The Democratic Convention of Pennsylvania transacted its business with little difficulty, and has, perhaps, placed in nomination the best candidate that could have been selected from the ranks of the party. Mr. Clymer is a gentleman of excellent character and of fine abilities. There can be no doubt that he will do credit to the office, should it be his fortune to be elected."

Again, the Philadelphia Press, filled with venom and malignity toward the Democratic party, as it usually is, feels constrained to speak, in terms of praise, of the Democratic nominee. it says:

"It gives us great pleasure to bear testimony to the high personal character of Hon. Hiester Clymer, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania. General Geary may well say that he has a "foeman worthy of his steel." Occupying positions exactly the reverse on all the great questions of the day, these two representative men will doubtless conduct the canvass in that spirit which should characterize a great controversy between principles that are eternally and unequivocally hostile."

When the leading newspaper organs of the "Republican" party are thus forced to endorse the character of Mr. Clymer, it were a work of supererogation, to defend him against the puerile assaults of the "small fry" that will, doubtless, soon begin to nibble at his reputation.

THADDEUS STEVENS made a speech in the Rump Congress, on Saturday last, in which he referred to President Johnson's late speech in the most cutting irony, declaring with the most awful gravity, that the President had never made any such speech, and that it was a cunning trick of the "Copperhead" party, who were trying to impose that speech upon the public and to make people believe that the President was given to loose and maudlin practices! This statement was received with roars of laughter, and Thaddeus seemed greatly delighted with this his last performance as clown to the Congressional Disunion circus. The difference between Stevens' joking and that of the President, is: the former gets his up for stage effect, whilst the latter makes his terribly practical, as Thaddeus will soon find out to his cost.

THE veto of the Freedmen's Bureau Bill, by President Johnson, has made sad havoc with the schemes of the Radicals in Congress. The Representation Amendment was defeated in the U. S. Senate, the other day, receiving but 25 votes, whilst 22 votes were cast against it, thus lacking 7 votes of the required two thirds. The Radicals seem to be afraid to push through any of their ultra measures at present. They are, doubtless, waiting on the New Hampshire and Connecticut elections.

WHO would be a Disunion Dead Duck? If any there be who desire to bear this new political appellation, let them follow the lead of Stevens, Sumner, Wendell Phillips and Forney, the first three of whom the President of the United States denounces as Disunionists, while he scornfully styles the last named, who is their fugleman, a "Dead Duck!"

HON. A. H. COFFROTH has offered a resolution (which has been adopted) instructing the Committee on Military Affairs to inquire into the expediency of reporting by bill or otherwise, for the relief of such persons as were charged and who paid commutation money or put in substitutes a second time.

THE nomination of John W. Geary suits us exactly. We are always in favor of Democrats for important offices, and if a sound Democrat, like Hiester Clymer, cannot be elected, we, of course, prefer a slightly decayed one, like Geary, to an old "Republican" like Ketchum or Morehead. It is well enough to have two strings to our bow.

RUMORS are again in circulation that the Cabinet is soon to be re-constructed.

HARRISBURG LETTER.

Lex as Policeman: The rival Conventions: Clymer, Johnson and the Union, vs. Geary, Congress and Disunion: Bill for the extension of time of beginning work by the C. & S. P. R. R. Co.: District Attorney Bill: Chairmanships of Political State Committees.

HARRISBURG, March 12, 1866.

Editor Gazette:—You will excuse me for not writing my accustomed letter ere this, when I inform you that my services were called into requisition to assist in preserving the morals of our legislators during the memorable week which has just closed. What with the two political conventions which assembled in this place during the past seven days, and the desperation to which the Disunion Members and Senators have been driven by the course of the President, we Harrisburgers have had our hands full in keeping our streets free from brawls and in preserving the peace. But thanks to Barney Campbell and our efficient police, nothing serious happened us, and now, since the last rural politician has taken his last gin cock-tail and departed, order reigns once more in Warsaw.

Your readers are, doubtless, fully advised as to the doings of the two conventions which met here, on the 5th and 7th, inst. The issue between the two parties at the coming gubernatorial election is boldly and clearly defined. Mr. Clymer, the Democratic nominee, stands upon a platform squarely endorsing the President's restoration policy. Mr. Geary, the "Republican" candidate, is placed by the convention which nominated him, upon a Disunion platform, with any quantity of negro planks in it. The Geary platform endorses Congress and refuses to sustain the President. Thus, Mr. Clymer becomes the Johnson candidate, whilst Mr. Geary is placed in the position of antagonism to the President. What makes this issue the clearer, is the fact that Forney, the enemy and defamer of the President, was Geary's principal fugleman in the fight for the nomination. Mr. Johnson will not be likely to favor the election of a man to the Governorship of Pennsylvania, who would probably draw his political aliment from a "dead duck."

A bill has been introduced in the House, to extend the time for the commencement of work upon the Connellsville and Southern Pennsylvania R. R. I have not seen the bill, but I understand that it gives the company three years additional in which to commence operations upon their line. It has passed the House, and I am informed that both Messrs. Armstrong and Ross, the members from your district, voted for the bill. I cannot comprehend their conduct in this matter, but hope that they will be able to explain it to their constituents.

The bill to decapitate your district attorney has been changed into a general bill, by the action of the Senate, and will likely go to a committee of conference of the two houses.

The able and energetic chairman of the Democratic State Committee, Hon. W. A. Wallace, will act in that capacity, under a resolution of the late Convention, until the meeting of the next Democratic State Convention. It is conjectured that Col. L. W. Hall, Senator from Blair, will be the chairman of the "Republican" State Committee. Should this be the case, the politics of the State will be centred in the Senate, and the respective champions of the two parties will have a fair opportunity of watching each other's movements.

LEX.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

—S. R. Mallory, late Secretary of the Confederate Navy, has been released from Fort La Fayette, in which he was imprisoned, last summer.

—Great gains have been made in the recent town elections in New York.—The World says a complete political revolution has taken place in that state.

—It is said that John W. Forney is a candidate for U. S. Senator to succeed Hon. Edgar Cowan. There will hardly be geese enough elected to the next legislature to bear this "Dead Duck" upon their downy wings to a seat in the U. S. Senate.

—Gen. Rousseau and Gen. Green Clay Smith, both of whom fought valiantly in the late war, are members of Congress from Kentucky, and though elected as "Republicans," vote on all the issues now dividing parties, with the Democrats.

—Says the Age: "Some of the "Republican" journals in announcing the nomination of General Geary for Governor, are recapitulating his immense services, in the field, as a military hero. They have not, however, got as far back as the period of his service in California as "Alcalde." Won't they enlighten the public upon that subject? Or shall we?

—A fair for the relief of Southern sufferers is to be held in Baltimore, as soon as possible after Easter. Contributions for this humane object can be sent to Charles W. Woodward, 523 Minor St., Philadelphia.

—Rev. Alexander Campbell, the founder of the sect known as the "Disciples of Christ," and popularly denominated "Campbellite Baptists," died, a few days ago, at Bethany, Va. Bishop Campbell was an eminent scholar, and one of the greatest controversialists of the age.

SCENES IN THE DISUNION CONVENTION.

The special reporter for the Lancaster Intelligencer, gives the following graphic description of the closing scenes in the Disunion State Convention:

The greatest excitement and confusion prevailed throughout the Hall; and to add to the general disorder, the President of the Convention showed himself utterly unfit to preside. He could neither preserve order, nor comprehend the plainest parliamentary rules. Mr. Benedict, the clerk of the House of Representatives, took his stand beside him to assist him. But it was no use. Honest John's head was too thick and his brain too much bemuddled. He was quite past help, even from Mr. Benedict. His stupid decisions, which were made one moment and reversed the next, gave rise to shouts of derisive laughter. Col. McClure badgered him with points of order until he was made a really pitiable object. At about every third sentence, Mr. McClure would solemnly remark, "If I ie in order, sir," and the mere enunciation of the word order, invariably brought down the house in shouts of laughter and applause.

Finally John Cessna got the floor amidst the general confusion, and proposed to re-commit the resolution in regard to President Johnson, to the Committee on Resolutions.

Col. McClure, said he rose to a point of order. The crowd yelled and roared with laughter, and the look of the President was one of utter dismay. He had conceived a holy horror of the gentleman from Franklin. Mr. McClure stated his point of order to be that the resolution could not be re-committed without re-committing the whole report, a part of which had been passed. The President first said it could, and then he decided that it could not; all in about the same breath. (Laughter of course.)

Fortunately for Covode, just at this point, Mr. Carnahan withdrew his amendment; saying, in an excited manner, that he had only asked the Convention to say that President Johnson was not a traitor, a knave and a fool, but that it seemed members were unwilling to do so.

The original resolution being then before the Convention, Mr. Cessna called for the previous question.

Mr. Kirkpatrick, of Allegheny, protested against being gagged, saying the gentleman from Bedford had violated his plighted word in calling for the previous question.

Mr. Cessna replied that he was doing what he did for the good of the party, and that he should not go to the gentleman from Allegheny to learn what was gentlemanly.

Mr. Kirkpatrick replied: "I hurl back upon the gentleman from Bedford the assertion that he has violated his plighted word, a thing no gentleman ever does."

Cessna subsided, and called for the putting of the vote on the previous question.

One of the first delegates who voted asked what question was before the body. The Chairman declared the vote to be on the resolution. This caused another outburst of laughter at the expense of the chair; but the vote proceeded by ayes and nays, resulting in the passage of the resolution by a vote of ayes 109 to nays 21.

M'CLURE WANTS CESSNA CONTINUED AS CHAIRMAN.

The other resolutions were then adopted as a whole, with the exception of the last, which refers to the State Central Committee. As an amendment to that Mr. McClure offered the following:

Resolved, That the ability, fidelity and eminent success with which Hon. John Cessna discharged the duties of Chairman of the Union State Committee, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the Union party of Pennsylvania, and that he is hereby continued Chairman of said Committee for another year.

That gave rise to an excited discussion, it being apparent that many members of the Convention regarded it as a cunning scheme for capturing all the patronage in case the nominee should be elected. Upon some delegate remarking that the resolution, as it came from the Committee, had received the approval of every member, some one asked if Mr. Cessna was not on the Committee. This brought the little dodger to his feet, and, making a virtue of necessity, he asked his friend, Col. McClure, to withdraw his amendment.—John did not subside, however, until he had made a speech in which he bid high for a reappointment. The resolution in regard to the State Central Committee was then passed as it came from the Committee.

CONGRESSIONAL NEWS.

SENATE.—A petition of certain Savings Banks of Rhode Island asking that Savings Banks without capital shall be exempted from the income tax was presented and referred to the Committee on Finance. A joint resolution of the West Virginia Legislature, setting forth the claims of that State against the Government for troops furnished during the war, was presented and referred to the Committee on Military Affairs. Mr. Poland introduced a joint resolution to be proposed as an amendment to the Constitution declaring that no person who has been or shall be engaged in rebellion against the United States, shall ever be allowed to vote or hold office in the United States or in any State. It was referred to the Committee on Reconstruction. Resolutions were offered by Mr. Henderson declaring the powers of Congress in reference to the Southern States; favoring negro suffrage, and directing the committee to provide by law for the re-establishment of State governments in the Southern States on the principles set forth in these resolutions. They were ordered to be printed and laid on the table. The joint resolution fixing the basis of representation was then taken up. Messrs. Morrill and Wilson spoke in favor of the resolution. Its further consideration was then deferred until to-morrow. The Senate soon afterwards went into executive session, and at its close adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.—The Senate joint resolution appropriating fifteen thousand dollars to repay Miss Clara Barton for expenses incurred in searching for missing Federal soldiers was taken up and passed. Mr. Boutwell, of Massachusetts, from the Committee on Reconstruction, submitted, as a minority report, the views of himself and Mr. Washburne, of Illinois. This report declares that the people of the State of Tennessee shall allow negro suffrage before they are admitted into the Union. It was ordered to be printed. A resolution was adopted calling on the Secretary of War for all orders and papers relating to the condition of the freedmen which are in possession of the Freedmen's Bureau, and that have not been already sent in. A bill to facilitate postal and commercial intercourse between the different States was reported back, with amendments, from the Judiciary Committee. The consideration of the bill was postponed until next Tuesday. A bill was reported from the same committee and passed, declaring the number of Justices that shall hereafter constitute the Supreme Court of the United States, and defining the different circuits in the United States. A bill was reported from the same committee, restricting the fees allowed to agents for prosecuting claims for soldiers. After a long debate, it was recommitted by a vote of yeas 70 to nays 69, with instructions to provide for a system of agents for soldiers claims in the several States, to be paid by the Government. The Senate bill to secure to all persons the same civil rights in the several States was then taken up. Several members made long speeches on the bill. The House then adjourned without taking a vote.

SENATE.—A petition from citizens of Wisconsin, asking that the election for President and Vice President be made directly by the people, and also a petition from citizens of Massachusetts asking that treason be punished and loyalty rewarded, were referred to the Committee on Reconstruction. The consideration of the joint resolution fixing the basis of representation was then resumed. Mr. Fessenden made a long speech in favor of the resolution. He was followed by Mr. Wilson, and at the close of his remarks, the question was taken upon the amendment offered by Mr. Henderson, which provides that no State in prescribing the qualifications of electors therein, shall discriminate against any person on account of color or race. It was rejected—yeas 10, nays 31. Mr. Clarke offered as an amendment for the amendment of Mr. Sumner, that Representatives shall be appointed according to the number of male citizens in each State above twenty-one years of age. The amendment, after a speech from Mr. Creswell, was withdrawn by consent. The amendment of Mr. Sumner in favor of negro suffrage was then taken up and rejected by a vote of 39 nays to 8 yeas. The question was next taken on the original resolution as reported by the committee. That resolution declared that "representation shall be apportioned among the several States, which shall be included within this Union, according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed.—Provided, that whenever the elective franchise shall be denied or abridged in any State on account of race or color, all persons therein of such race or color shall be excluded from the basis of representation." The vote resulted as follows: Yeas 25, nays 22. Two-thirds of the Senators not having voted for the joint resolution, it was lost. On motion of Mr. Henderson, the vote on the resolution was reconsidered, and, after several amendments had been proposed, it was agreed to postpone further consideration of the subject until Thursday next. The Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.—The House took up the bill to protect all persons in their civil rights and furnish means for their vindication. Mr. Bingham, of Ohio, made a speech against the bill. Messrs. Shellabarger and Wilson then spoke in favor of it. A motion was made to lay the whole subject on the table. The motion was lost by a vote of yeas 32, nays 118. A motion to recommit the bill, with instructions, was refused. It was then recommitted to the Committee on the Judiciary by a vote of yeas 82, nays 70. A bill was reported from the Committee on Appropriations to reimburse the State of Missourri for expenses incurred in equipping the militia during the war. It was referred to the Committee of the Whole. Mr. Morrill, of Vermont, from the Committee on Ways and Means, said, in reply to Mr. Raymond, that the committee would report at an early day in regard to the cotton and income tax and reductions in other parts of the internal tax law. The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the bill regulating trade between the United States and the British Provinces. Mr. Stevens proposed an amendment taxing bituminous coal one dollar and twenty-five cents per ton, instead of fifty cents, as in the bill. A long debate ensued. Mr. Francis Thomas, of Maryland, and Mr. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, spoke in favor of the amendment. It was finally agreed to by a vote of yeas 66, nays 58. The committee then rose, and without final action on the bill, the House adjourned.

IN the Senate at Harrisburg, on Friday, 2d inst., Mr. Browne offered the following resolutions which were passed by a party vote:

"WHEREAS, Hon. Edgar Cowan, Senator of the United States from Pennsylvania, has not, nor does not now represent truly the majority of the people of the patriotic State that elected him in the paramount issues growing out of the recent rebellion, therefore:

Resolved, That Hon. Edgar Cowan, Senator of the United States from Pennsylvania, be and he hereby is requested to resign."

In older times, we heard a vast deal of the slave driver's whip being cracked over the heads of Northern members of Congress. Now, it is the radical whip which is presumed to carry terror in its crack. Of the nineteen gentlemen who voted for these resolutions, doubtless each one holds himself peculiarly fitted to occupy the position he desires Mr. Cowan to vacate.—Somerset Herald & Whig, (Rep.)

The Government and the Fenians.

NEW YORK, March 10.—The Express this evening says that several conferences have taken place between Secretary Seward and Sir F. Bruce, British Minister at Washington, on the Fenian movements. The latter has been assured that no violation of the neutrality laws will be permitted. Should events demonstrate its necessity, a proclamation will be issued on the first attempt to violate the neutrality laws, warning all engaged of the consequences.

Election of a Democratic Mayor in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, March 12.—John T. Monroe, National Democratic candidate for Mayor, has been elected over Moore, National Union, by 316 majority. Three of the four Recorders elected are National Democrats; the fourth is a National Unionist.

Another Veto.

Gov. Curtin has vetoed the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad bill. The veto takes the ground that the privilege accorded the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad is an infringement of private rights, and that its operation would be conducive to the fostering of monopolies instead of the promotion of the general prosperity.

—The Surgeon in Chief of the Freedmen's Bureau of South Carolina, reports the small pox as spreading with great rapidity in some portions of the State.

—Rev. Martin Moore, for many years editor of the Boston Recorder, died in Boston, on Sunday evening, aged 76 years.

—The North Carolina Legislature adjourned last Monday.

THE FENIANS.

Important Reports from Burlington, Vermont—Large Quantities of Arms and Uniforms Accumulated—Preparations for a Raid—Rumored Departure of a Fenian Regiment from Baltimore, &c., &c., &c.,

ALBANY, March 11.

I have just received some very important news through private and reliable sources from Burlington, throwing considerable light on the movements of the Fenians in that vicinity. Uniforms for fifteen thousand men, and two thousand rifles of the very best pattern, have been transported quietly during the last ten days from New-York City and from Troy to Burlington, Vermont, where they now remain concealed, awaiting the advance of the Fenian host. It is more than possible that these arms will see the light on St. Patrick's day, when there is to be a grand demonstration of some kind made by the Irish population in that locality. Arms in abundance are said to be stored at Detroit, Sandusky, Buffalo, Ogdensburg, Plattsburg, and Montpelier. Three companies of Fenian volunteers have been organized in Burlington for service in Canada. An old officer who has seen service in Mexico has command of the battalion. The Vermont Fenians have received trustworthy intelligence from Montreal that there was a secret meeting of the leaders of the movement in that city, last Friday night, in a building not a hundred yards from the Bonsecours market, in which it was resolved to give every aid possible to the invaders. Out of the 85,000 members of that order in Canada, it is stated that 25,000 will take up arms as soon as Sweeney's advance reaches Canadian soil. Many of the Southern officers who have been residing in Canada for the last two years, have gone to New-York for the purpose of offering their services and assistance to General Sweeney. Lo Isle St. Helene, on the St. Lawrence River, opposite Montreal, a military post, which is a key to the defence of the city, is being put in a thorough state of defence, and no civilian is allowed to visit the forts under any pretense whatever.

Rumors of the Departure of a Fenian Regiment from Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, March 11.—There are rumors circulating here that a body of 800 Fenians, will leave here to-morrow evening by the Northern Central Railroad, for Canada or somewhere else. It is proper to say that said reports are deemed utterly sensational.

The Search for Fenian Arms and Documents—Special Instructions of the Canadian Customs Authorities.

TORONTO, C. W., March 10.

The government's call for volunteers is being responded to with the utmost alacrity and enthusiasm. A circular published by the Customs Department specially instructs officers to thoroughly search all the baggage of passengers coming into the Province, and detain all arms, weapons and munitions of war found, or otherwise brought in or worn by passengers, who may be required to give their names and connection, with a list of arms, etc., taken from them. Express goods are to be compared with their manifests, and packages may, with reasonable suspicion, be opened. Freight trains are to be carefully examined, and no package not mentioned in the manifest will be allowed to pass. The cars are to be securely locked or sealed before they pass the frontier. The greatest vigilance is expected from the officers in seeing that the prohibition against arms is enforced. The Departments have also issued another circular to collectors, stating that it is considered that the abrogation of the Reciprocity Treaty will have the effect of leaving any pre-existing customs duties attached to imports into Canada, of the present list of free goods, which are to continue to be admitted free from any part of the world until the Legislature deems it advisable to reimpose duties thereupon, with the exception of dried fruits, the growth of the United States, fur skins, pelts, and tails undressed, when imported directly from the States, which will, after March 17, be liable to a duty of twenty per cent.

Great Alarm in New Brunswick—Depositors making a Run on the Bank.

ST. JOHN, N. B. Saturday, March 10. —There is much alarm here about the Fenians, on account of our defenceless condition. The government has done nothing whatever to prepare for the emergency. There is a smart run on the banks for gold by depositors of small sums.

GOV. CURTIN and the State Treasurer have gone to Washington for the purpose of pressing the passage of a law to reimburse Pennsylvania for the amount of money expended for the recruiting and equipment of troops during the late war. This claim has hung in Congress during the entire present session, and it would be well for the people of the different Congressional districts throughout the Commonwealth to urge on their Representatives the necessity of securing the immense amount of money now due to the State.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—One of the largest and most enthusiastic town meetings ever known in Bedford, was held at the Court House, on Saturday evening last, for the purpose of ratifying the nomination of HON. HIESTER CLYMER, for Governor, and to select a ticket to be supported at the borough election to-day (Friday). Hon. Job Mann, President of the Keystone Club, assisted by Maj. Sansom and Isaac Mengel, Esq., as Vice Presidents, presided over the meeting. The meeting was addressed by B. F. Meyers and O. E. Shannon, Esqs., in advocacy of the restoration policy of President Johnson, and the election of Mr. Clymer, as the representative of that policy. Every allusion to the President, or Mr. Clymer, caused the most tremendous cheering by the audience. This meeting evinced the fact that the Democracy are up and doing and determined to conquer. The following ticket was nominated to be supported by the Democrats and Johnson men of Bedford borough, at the election to-day (Friday):

Chief Burgess, George Blymyer.
Assistant Burgess, J. J. Shoemaker.
Councilmen, T. H. Lyons, D. Border.
High Constable, Wm. Earnest.
Auditor, J. R. Yeager.
Constable, John Harris.
Judge of Election, H. Nicodemus.
Inspector, John Boor.
Assessor, J. M. Gephart.
Supervisors, John Miller, A. Leonard.
Town Clerk, J. Henry Hutton.
School Directors, Jacob Reed, T. R. Gettys.

This is an excellent ticket and we hope every Democrat and every friend of the President will give it his cordial support. Remember that this ticket was nominated by a meeting that endorsed Andrew Johnson and those who would sustain him in his noble efforts to restore the Union and to give us permanent peace, will fail to do so, if they permit it to be defeated. Let every man do his duty.

BEDFORD TOWNSHIP DEMOCRATIC TICKET.—The gallant Democracy of Bedford township, met at the Court House, on Saturday last, and nominated the following ticket, which should receive the support of every Union-loving citizen of that district:

Constable—D. W. Amos.
Justice—James A. Anderson.
Assessor—Jacob Hershberger.
Judge of Election—J. T. Gephart.
Inspector—Jonathan Reighard.
School Directors—Thomas Gilchriest, Henry B. Pensyl.
Supervisors—William O. Leary, J. H. Moorehead.
Auditor—Henry Sill.
Tp. Clerk—A. J. Reighard.

John, I lost some clothes last week,
To you I've come advice to seek;
Why, Will, your course is plain, I think,
You want a bottle of Indelible Ink,
from J. L. Lewis' Drug Store.

Ask for Payson's, used with a common pen, and without any preparation. Perfectly indelible.

As good as the sample.—No person is obliged to take a "Photograph Family Record," although he subscribed for it, unless the copy offered to him is as good as the sample.

THE DEMAND FOR SEWING MACHINES.—A few years ago sewing machines were as scarce in the houses of our citizens as pianos, and almost as little understood; but now they are to be found in almost every well regulated household, and the demand for them is steadily on the increase. Take the Wheeler & Wilson machine for instance, which is a general favorite everywhere, and one is struck with surprise at the immense demand for them which exists. Of these machines (justly celebrated as embracing all those qualities which render a sewing machine valuable, without any of the defects which are so often to be found in machines of an inferior quality,) 12,000 are now sold quarterly, the Pittsburg agency of W. Sumner & Co., Fifth street, alone selling from sixty to seventy every week. This firm employs fifteen teams in carrying on their business, and there is no village in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio, or Western Virginia, not reached by their operations. The demand for the Wheeler & Wilson machines is perhaps one of the strongest proofs of its utility and efficiency. It always gives satisfaction, no matter what kind of work it is wanted for, hence its great popularity. Mr. Carpenter informs us that he has now at his office a large assortment, in every style of case, and all warranted, as usual, to give general satisfaction. Those about buying a machine will do well to bear this in mind, and give him a call before purchasing.—Pittsburg Commercial.

BUSINESS MAN WANTED, to represent the WHEELER & WILSON SEWING MACHINE, in Bedford county. Liberal arrangements will be made with a person of the right stamp. Ministers and students find this a pleasant and profitable employment. Address immediately, WM. SUMNER & Co., Pittsburg, Pa.

THE CULTIVATION OF SORGHUM.—Some years ago Mr. J. Henry Schell, of Schellsburg, brought from Kansas, a quantity of Sorghum seed, which he planted and from which he raised a crop that yielded a very fair profit upon the labor and expense employed in the experiment. Since then the cultivation of this plant has engaged the attention of a number of farmers in different parts of the county. We have been informed that last year several persons cleared upwards of $600 on patches of a few acres planted in sorghum. Our climate and soil seem to be admirably adapted to the culture of this plant, and we should not be surprised if it would eventually become one of the staples of the county. The syrup expressed from the sorghum cane possesses very strong saccharine qualities and is a very palatable article for the table. We are of the opinion that our agriculturists would do well to engage extensively in the culture of this plant, as it will certainly return them a fair profit upon the labor and money they may expend upon it.

A BEDFORD COUNTY OIL COMPANY IN LUCK.—A letter from our friend Jere. Baughman, informs us that the "Salt Creek Oil Co.," in which many Bedford county people are interested, struck a well of heavy lubricating oil, on the 7th inst. When it was struck, the oil was thrown all around the well by the force of the gas. Mr. Baughman thinks it will be a fifty barrel well.—The "Stump Islands Oil Co.," of this place, are said to have struck a large well.

LECTURE.—Rev. Mr. Barrow delivered his second lecture on London, to a large and attentive audience, on Tuesday night last. On next Tuesday evening, Rev. H. Heckerman will lecture in the Court House, on the subject of "National Sports and Popular Amusements."

EPISCOPAL SERVICES.—There will be the usual services on Sunday next, at 10½ a. m., and 3½ p. m. In the afternoon, the Rev. Mr. Barrow will continue his course of sermons on the Women of the New Testament. Subject, "The Woman of Samaria."

PUBLIC taste has decided that Phalon's "Night-Blooming Cereus" shall reign supreme among the perfumes manufacturrd on this continent—a fact of which the unprecedented increase in its sales during the past six months is proof unanswerable. Sold everywhere.

Americans not only do their own fighting and voting, but their own perfuming. Phalon's "Night-Blooming Cereus" has attained a celebrity never achieved by any foreign perfume in this country, and even Europeans admit that it excels any of the floral extracts made abroad. Sold everywhere.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS. INFLUENZA, DIPHTHERIA.—In inflammatory affections, when no bleeding is permitted, a free use of these pills soon modifies the alarming symptoms, and perseverance, according to the directions, usually quickly cures, and certainly nothing is risked in using Brandreth's Pills. For cold, influenza, diphtheria, pains of the head, dizziness and apoplexy, no medicine can be compared to them. In erysipelas, fever and ague, small-pox, and in all the diseases of childhood, their use insures a speedy recovery of health. They produce these results simply by taking from the blood its impurities, leaving this vital fluid free, to aid a weak "locality" to recover its proper and necessary "status" or health.

Brandreth's Pills have affinity for the subject matter of disease, and cause its certain expulsion from the body. [Feb 23–1m

DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN HORSE LINIMENT.—Pint bottles for one dollar each, for lameness, cuts, galls, cholic, sprains, &c., warranted cheaper than any other. It is used by all the great horsemen on Long Island courses. It will not cure ring bone nor spavin, as there is no liniment in existence that will. What it is stated to cure it positively does. No owner of horses will be without after trying one bottle. One dose revives and often saves the life of an over-heated or driven horse. For colic and belly-ache it has never failed. Just as sure as the sun rises, just so sure is this valuable Liniment to be the Horse embrocation of the day. Sold by all druggists. A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN.—Just published in a sealed envelope. Price six cents. A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical cure of Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Emissions, Sexual Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally. Nervousness, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from Self-Abuse, &c. By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world renowned author, in this admirable Lecture clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. THIS LECTURE WILL PROVE A BOON TO THOUSANDS AND THOUSANDS.

SOUTHERN HISTORY OF THE WAR.

BY

E. A. POLLARD, Editor Richmond Examiner. 2 Vols., 8vo., about 675 pages each. $3.50 per vol.

With 20 Splendid Steel Portraits,

This is the only complete and authentic history of the Southern side published, extending as it does, from the beginning of the war to the final surrender of the Confederate armies.

Mr. POLLARD'S prominent position in the Confederacy has enabled him to prepare a work unequaled in accuracy and interest, and which is everywhere acknowledged to be the STANDARD SOUTHERN HISTORY.

It should find a place in every library.

—II—

SOUTHERN GENERALS:
THEIR LIVES AND CAMPAIGNS,
By CAPT. W. PARKER SNOW.
With 17 Splendid Steel Portraits,
1 Vol. 8vo.; 500 pages, $4.00.

Containing Biographies of the distinguished Southern Generals, with full and graphic accounts of the various campaigns in which they were engaged. It is a most important and interesting volume, and has been prepared with the utmost care and thoroughness.

—III—

Life, Services and Campaigns of STONEWALL JACKSON:
BY A VIRGINIAN.
1 Vol. 12mo.; 375 pages, $1.50.
WITH AUTHENTIC PORTRAITS OF JACKSON, and his successor EWELL, on Steel.

This is the only authentic history of this distinguished leader which has been written. It has been prepared from Official Reports, contemporary narratives, and personal acquaintance, and is complete and full.

—IV—

The Raids and Romances of MORGAN AND HIS MEN:
BY MRS. SALLY ROCHESTER FORD.
With Steel Portrait of Gen. Morgan,
1 Vol. 12mo.; 425 pages, $1.75. A complete history of this daring officer, more thrilling and interesting than fiction.

—V—

35 Distinguished Literary Women of the South.

All the above works are having an immense sale, and agents are doing splendidly everywhere. Many are making from $10 to $15 a day.

We want an agent in every town in the Southern States. Returned Soldiers, Ladies, Teachers and others, will find this most profitable employment.

Exclusive territory given, and liberal inducements offered to canvassers. For full particulars, address C. B. RICHARDSON,
Publisher, 540 Broadway, N. Y.

AGENTS WANTED!—In every Township, Borough and Ward to canvass for "The Great One-Volume War History,"
CONTAINING FACTS AND NOT POLITICS.

The only work, every page of which has been prepared for the press since the close of the war.

The popularity of this work has no parallel, as more than 50,000 copies have been sold the last three months. It contains as much history as any of the one or two volume works out, and yet is sold for only $4.50, bound either in morocco or sheep.

Our inducements are decidedly the best offered, as we give the highest commision, furnish boxes free, and pay expressage on books.—ALSO,

"Life and Death in Rebel Prisons."

The most thrillingly exciting little book of the times, by one who has seen and experienced the scenes which he describes.

Canvassers for any History of the War will find this an excellent side Book. As it embraces such important incidents of the war, almost every body will take one, either with or without a History, or where having previously subscribed.

Disabled soldiers, released prisoners and others will find, in the sale of this and our History, employment suitable to their condition. Send for terms, or call at

BEDFORD NURSERIES,
BEDFORD, PA.
T. M. LYNCH,
Offers to the public and dealers, a large stock of well grown fruit trees consisting of APPLE TREES 6 to 10 feet high, PEAR, standard and dwarf, PLUM, CHERRY, APRICOT, NECTARINES, QUINCES, GRAPES, of all the desirable kinds, CHERRY CURRANT, and other fine varieties, GOOSEBERRIES, SPANISH CHESTNUT, ENGLISH WALNUT, SHADE AND ORNAMENTAL FLOWER TREES, evergreen trees, shrubs and vines in variety, honeysuckles of all kinds, Hardy perpetual blooming roses, flowering shrubs, dahlias, fancy varieties, fuchsias, chrysanthemums, &c.
Upwards of 150,000 trees are now on the grounds, thrifty and healthy. Not 1100 acres of trees, as some tree agents would have you believe they have, which is a humbug. Those intending to plant had better buy trees raised in like soil and climate, and run no risks of distant shipment. I have the same kinds of fruit and as fine trees as can be had at any nursery.
Catalogues sent free to those applying.
Persons at a distance will please write for further information.——☞Agents wanted to sell trees. Good wages paid. [Jan 26, '66-3m

Publications.

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.—LITERATURE, SCIENCE AND ART.—New Volume begins January, 1866.
The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE is, as its name indicates, a selection from other magazines and periodicals. These selections are carefully made each month, from the entire range of foreign Periodicals. In this respect it is entirely unlike other monthlies, and has no rival. The following are some of the works from which selections are made:—

|---|---|
| London Quarterly, | Revue de deux Mondes, |
| British Quarterly, | London Society, |
| North British Review, | Bentley's Miscellany, |
| Pop. Science Review, | Cornhill Magazine, |
| Saturday Review, | Fraser's Magazine, |
| Leisure Hour, | Temple Bar, |
| Westminster Review, | Chambers' Journal, |
| Dub. University Magazine, | Edinburg Review, |
| Art Journal, | London National Rev. |

We have also arranged to secure choice selections from the FRENCH, GERMAN AND OTHER CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS, translated especially for the ECLECTIC, and it is hoped this new feature will add greatly to the variety and value of the work.
EMBELLISHMENTS.
Each number is embellished with one or more Fine Steel Engravings—portraits of eminent men or illustrative of important events.
Volumes commence in January and July of each year; subscriptions can commence with any month.
TERMS: $5 per year; Single numbers, 50 cents. Five copies, $20.
The Trade, Clergymen, Teachers and Clubs supplied on favorable terms. Address,
W. H. BIDWELL,
Dec 22 5 Beekman St., New York.

BRITISH PERIODICALS.

| For Blackwood and any two of the Reviews | 10 00 |
| For Blackwood and three of the Reviews | 13.00 |
| For Blackwood and the four Reviews | 15.00 |

The interest of these Periodicals to American readers is rather increased than diminished by the articles they contain on our late Civil War, and though sometimes tinged with prejudice, they may still, considering their great ability and the different stand points from which they are written, be read and studied with advantage by the people of this country, of every creed and party.
Premiums to New Subscribers.
New Subscribers to any two of the above periodicals for 1866 will be entitled to receive, gratis, any one of the "Four Reviews" for 1865. New Subscribers to all five of the Periodicals for 1866, will receive gratis, any two of the "Four Reviews" for 1865.
Subscribers may also obtain back numbers at the following reduced rates, viz:
Blackwood from September, 1864, to December, 1865, inclusive, at the rate of $2.50 a year.
The North British from January, 1863, to December, 1865, inclusive; the Edinburgh and the Westminster from April, 1864, to December, 1865, inclusive, and the London Quarterly for the year 1865, at the rate of $1.50 a year for each or any Review.
☞A few copies yet remain of all the Four Reviews for 1863 at $1.00 a set, or $1.50 for any one. LEONARD SCOTT & Co.,

All persons whose subscriptions expire with the December number, and who intend to renew for the next year, are particularly requested to do so at once, in order that their names may not be removed from the lists. This will insure promptness in the reception of the January number. In remitting please state the fact that the subscription is a renewal.

ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1866, Messrs. TICKNOR & FIELDS began the publication of a weekly journal entitled
EVERY SATURDAY:
A JOURNAL OF CHOICE READING,
SELECTED FROM FOREIGN CURRENT LITERATURE.
Much of the best literature of the day is found in the English and Continental magazines and periodicals; and it is the design of the Publishers of this new journal to reproduce the choicest selections from these for American readers, in a form at once attractive and inexpensive. The publishers believe that such a journal, conducted upon the plan which they propose, will be not only entertaining and instructive in itself, but interesting and valuable as a reflex of foreign periodical literature of the better class.
EVERY SATURDAY is intended for town and country, for the fireside, the seaside, the railway and the steamboat. Its plan embraces Incidents of Travel and Adventure, Essays Critical and Descriptive, Serial Tales, Short Stories, Poems, Biographies, Literary Intelligence, etc., in connection with judicious selections from the admirable popular papers on science which are constantly appearing in foreign periodicals. The value of these papers arises from the fact that scientific subjects, however harsh and dry in themselves, are here treated in so graphic and picturesque a style as to charm the reader while instructing him.
It will be, in short, the aim of its publishers that EVERY SATURDAY shall commend itself by its freshness and variety to all classes of intelligent and cultivated readers.
EVERY SATURDAY will contain each week thirty-two large octavo pages, handsomely printed in double columns, with an engraved title.

TERMS.
Single Numbers, 10 cents.
Subscription price $5.00 per year, in advance.
MONTHLY PARTS will be issued, containing 128 pages each, handsomely bound in an attractive cover, price 50 cents. Subscription price, $5.00 per year, in advance.
CLUBBING ARRANGEMENT.—Subscribers to any of the other periodicals published by TICKNOR AND FIELDS will receive EVERY SATURDAY for $4.00 per year in advance.
TICKNOR & FIELDS, Publishers,
124 Tremont Street, Boston.
NOTICE TO THE PRESS.—EVERY SATURDAY will be furnished to the press, for clubbing, at $3.50 per year; and any paper copying this prospectus, with editorial notices, will be entitled to an exchange.

HELMBOLD'S BUCHU.
The only known remedy for
DIABETES,
IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, CATARRH OF THE BLADDER, STRANGURY OR PAINFUL URINATING.
For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.
Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of Helmbold's Buchu will relieve you.
PHYSICIANS AND OTHERS
PLEASE NOTICE.
I make no secret of ingredients. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs, and Juniper Berries, selected with great care, prepared in vacuo and according to rules of
PHARMACY AND CHEMISTRY.
These ingredients are known as the most valuable Diuretics afforded.
A DIURETIC
Is that which acts upon the kidneys.
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
ACTS GENTLY.
Is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action.
FOR THE SATISFACTION OF ALL,
See Medical Properties contained in Dispensatory of the U. S., of which the following is a correct copy:
"BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic, its taste bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, Morbid irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, Diseases of the Prostrate, and Retention or the Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone is the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections, and Dropsy."

FROM THE
LARGEST
MANUFACTURING CHEMIST
IN THE WORLD.
I am acquainted with H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise.
WM. WEIGHTMAN,
(Firm of Powers & Weightman,)
Manufacturing Chemists,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.
[From the Philad'a Evening Bulletin, Mar. 10.]
We are gratified to hear of the continued success, in New York, of our townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist. His store, next to the Metropolitan Hotel, is 28 feet front, 230 feet deep, and five stories in height. It is certainly a grand establishment, and speaks favorably of the merit of his articles. He retains his Office and Laboratory in this city, which are also model establishments of their class.
The proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are
GENUINE PREPARATIONS,
And, knowing that the intelligent refrain from using any thing pertaining to Quackery, or the Patent Medicine order—most of which are prepared by self-styled Doctors, who are too ignorant to read a physician's simplest prescription, much less competent to prepare pharmaceutical preparations.

SHRINERS BALSAMIC COUGH SYRUP.
For Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain and Weakness of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, &c.
This is no new remedy. It has been used for a number of years in Maryland and parts of Pennsylvania, and has, wherever known, acquired an unprecedented reputation for curing the various diseases for which it is recommended.
So apparent is its usefulness, and so remarkable has been its cures, that it is fast superceding every other remedy for those diseases. The afflicted can rely upon its doing as much for them, and in many cases more than any other remedy now before the public.
It is recommended and prescribed in the practice of a large number of the most intelligent and able physicians of Maryland. It is used and considered an indispensable household remedy by a large portion of the first families of the State.
It is used by all classes of society, and the universal opinion is that it is good. This Syrup is Purely Vegetable Compound. It is pleasant to take, and never does injury. But owing to its purifying qualities, must do good under any circumstances. Its effects are truly wonderful, soothing, calming, and allaying the most violent coughs, purifying, strengthening and invigorating the whole system, calming and soothing the nerves, aiding and facilitating expectoration, and healing the thus striking at the root of disease, and driving it from the system.
CROUP.
This disease is announced by difficulty of breathing, shrill whistling or wheezing, hacking cough and threatened suffocation, &c. It mostly occurs in young children. No child need die of croup if this Syrup is properly used and used in time.—Mothers having croupy children should watch the first show of the disease, and always keep this remedy at hand.
For coughs after measles this syrup is most excellent. Experience has proven that it is equalled by no other preparation
The price of the remedy is such as to place it within the reach of all, the poor as well as the rich, and every person should have it.
Every person should have it in the house. It is a true and faithful friend to all who value health and wish to secure themselves against that most terrible disease, consumption. It will be found the most useful as well as the cheapest family medicine in the world. It has been used for the last four years with a success without a parallel.
Price 50 cts. per bottle.
